Lawrence!

Would you please airmail a paperback copy of Maud Allan and her Art to:

Gary Williams 'Rotokare'

R.D.3

Napier

New Zealand

and advise me of cost, unless you debit my 'sales' record for 2001? Gary Williams is the guy who sold me the 1928 Trio record. I recently contacted him re research on the Trio's 1917 tour of NZ. To my astonishment (and apparently his delight) he offered to research thoroughly, which he did - producing some 40 pages of material! So he's sending me that immediately. I think the Macleod letters will fascinate him. I'm sparing him The Salome Dancer.

I'm going to Vancouver in mid April to help select photos and approve revisions. You have no idea how furious I was when I got the edited version - it ran to only 55 pages - from 105, and cut out some 'cultural' backdrop. I calmed down when I realised that the edited version was spaced 1.5, and my original was 2" - and so on. The 'cultural' backdrop is not needed - for family reading! That speaks for itself - in more ways than one!

I think Bridget Lamont's interest might lead to a publication in South Africa? She will have a field day of 'new' research for South Africa.

Maud's day will come . . . as the day the night. And let me know when you get going on the Allan exhibition so that I can send you a couple or so of orginal letters.

Thanks for the 2000 Royalties cheque - and for airmailing MA and Her Art to NZ!

felix.

Thank you so much for sending MA and er Art to:

Dr. Ruth Lightbourne

Music Librarian

National Library of new Zealand

P.O. Box 1467 Wellington,

New Zealand.

by REGULAR MAIL.

I suggested she can order a copy for the Library. The text now 'exists' in SA, Australia, New Zealand. . . .

The latest issue of your Bulletin reads very well by the way. Thank you for sending it.

SENT AMAIN 3/2006

Felix.
